Awhad was emotional in the press conference on the molestation case

Umesh Wandre

Thane: A case has been registered in the Mumbra Police Station regarding molestation of a woman by NCP MLA Jitendra Awhad during the flight inauguration ceremony. Awad has resigned from his MLA saying that two false cases have been filed against me in 72 hours and once I would have committed murder or any other crime but I cannot tolerate a crime like molestation. I have never done this in my political life. That's why I respect the complainant woman by saying that they still don't know how the police filed this case. Through 'Lav Re To Video', Awad showed the video of the same woman as a sister on the day of Chhat Puja in a press conference. For understanding, Dada from Pune and Patil from Sangli. Meanwhile, after Awada resigned from his MLA, Nationalist Party's state president Jayant Patil from Sangli and opposition leader Ajit Pawar from Pune came to Thane to understand Awada. Jayant Patil said in a press conference that the politics of Maharashtra is going in a different direction and everyone should try to avoid low level politics. Sister Awhad talks to the same woman after a few days and now a case of molestation is registered. The government and the police are facing a question mark. The work to determine the willful criminal is going on. A police officer is standing in front of the Chief Minister. Jayant Patil said that the law is being misused. Patil demanded that the Chief Minister should take a decision with the wisdom of the members.

Frame: This matter should be fully investigated - Ajit Pawar Was there any pressure on the complainant woman to register the crime? The case took place at night after which she meets the Chief Minister and a case is registered. Therefore, state opposition leader Ajit Pawar demanded that the state chief minister Eknath Shinde and home minister Devendra Fadnavis conduct a complete inquiry into the matter. Also, an Phule are leaders who carry Ambedkar's thought forward. The video does not show that the Chief Minister was molested in front of the police. It is a shame that efforts are being made to suppress the voice of the opposition. Pawar raised the question whether this is a conspiracy. I have come here from Baramati Pune to know what the facts are. Implicating innocent people on the basis of law is also unconstitutional. We have never misused the house account for many years. Ajit Pawar requested Awhad to withdraw his tweet.
